Where Is Humanism Going?

On June 18 at 7:30 p.m. at Unitarian Society of New Haven Dr. Robert Rafford will introduce and moderate this panel and open discussion. Nat Wolf and Manny Ratafia, who carried the flag of the Humanist Association of Central Connecticut to the 60th Annual conference of the American Humanist Association, May 18-20, in Los Angeles, CA, will share with us their impressions of the event. Bonnie Cohen will discuss current events in freethought circles, such as the Freedom from Religion Foundation. David Schafer will talk about "where we think we are going next, where we would like to go, and how we will get there. My vision for the Humanization of the planet involves media, money, and 'magination—and plenty of them all. Incidentally, this is not just a question of getting people to like us or accept our ideas, it's a question of the survival of the human race."

Come with a friend to USNH at 7:30 p.m. for a socially relaxed half hour of refreshments and conversation before the panel at 8:00 p.m., and participate in the exciting discussion afterward!

Humanism and the Problem of Evil

One of our most popular speakers is returning! Nash Boutros, M.D., professor of Psychiatry and Neurology at Yale University, will talk to us about Humanism and the Problem of Evil.

Does the word "evil" refer to a real thing or an abstraction? Do Humanists believe "evil exists in the world?" If so, what does this mean? What's the difference between "evil" and just plain "bad?"

Because Nash is going to be overseas through most of July, we have had to move our monthly meeting to the fourth Monday of the month. This moves our meeting to Monday, July 23, so be sure to mark the date on your calendar!

As usual, the meeting will be held at USNH at 7:30 p.m. Bring a friend; refreshments will be served.
