Sunday, October 26, 3:00 p.m.

In order to accommodate a very special speaker, we have moved our regular monthly meeting to Sunday, October 26 at 3:00 p.m. (Yes, this is also the day we turn our clocks back.)

Join us at 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden as we hear from Nick Nyhart, executive director of Public Campaign: Clean Money, Clean Elections, based in Washington DC. He has been working with Senators McCain and Feingold and others to change the laws of campaign finance. As defenders of

Mystic/Noank

The next meeting of the humanist discussion group is scheduled for Saturday, November 8, 10:15 a.m. at the Mystic and Noank Library. The topic will be "The Bill of Rights, the law, and morality."

For more information and directions, phone George Marcus at (860) 572-9188 or e-mail gminnoank@worldnett.att.net.

Thornton Street, Hamden, CT 06517-1321. Submissions and requests for permission to reprint articles should be made to this address or to editor@cthumanist.org. Please include a SASE to have material returned. We welcome letters, articles, photographs, the McCain-Feingold Act told the Supreme Court on September 8, ordinary voters need to know the federal government works for them and not just for well-heeled campaign contributors. Mark your calendars now for Sunday, October 26, at 3:00 p.m. at 700 Hartford Turnpike, Hamden, to hear Nick describe the successes his organization has been achieving on both the federal and state levels. We'll have refreshments at 3:00 and the program will start at 3:30. Come and bring a friend!

Conversations

Our next Conversations will be a follow-up on the October talk by Nick Nyhart and will include a Bill Moyers videotape.

Join us in the library at the Unitarian Association of New Haven, 700 Hartford Turnpike, Hamden, at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday, November 1.

As usual, light refreshments will be served.
