Business Meeting and Winter Solstice Festival

You are all cordially invited to take part in our annual gala Humanist celebration of the Winter Solstice at 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden on Monday, December 20 at 7:30 p.m. Winter will arrive punctually on the 21st. At 7:30 p.m. We'll start off appropriately with seasonal pot-luck refreshments, continuing through the evening, so bring something to share.

After a brief business meeting to elect officers for the year 2005 CE, we'll begin our traditional welcome of winter by reading Lois Woodrow's poem, "Ode to the Tilt." Folk music will be provided by the Wild Notes ensemble. There will be singing, dancing, merry-making, and possibly even a bit of frolicking.

Remember to bring items for the silent auction! This is held teacup-style, where participants purchase tickets to be placed in "teacups" to be drawn from at the end of the night. We will be able to accommodate more valuable items via either a traditional silent auction sheet with a minimum bid for very expensive items and separate tables with different-colored tickets for more and less valuable items, as determined by the donor.

It's all great fun, so bring a friend to 700 Hartford Turnpike on Monday, December 20 at 7:30 p.m.

Dinners

Join us for dinner at Pasta Fair on Monday, December 13 and at Contrassegno on Monday, January 10 at 7:00 p.m. We would appreciate the effort, if you would RSVP via humanism.meetup.com in order to maintain our presence as the New Haven humanism presence at meetup.com.

Join us on December 25 at 11:30 a.m. for brunch at Shangri-Lee Chinese Restaurant, 965 South Main Street, Cheshire. (203) 250-8888. Shangri-Lee, reputed to have dim sum as good as you'll find in any Chinatown, is on Route 10 in the Cheshire Shopping Center, which is on the west side of the road a little south of the intersection of Routes 10 and 42. The restaurant is all the way on the south side of the shopping plaza and may seem hidden around the corner of the building. Please RSVP to Carol Stone (203) 264-8546 by December 24.

We erroneously announced a dinner at Lisboa for the end of December. Lisboa is closed that week. Please join us Wednesday, January 26, at 7:00 p.m. when we will enjoy another authentic Portuguese meal at Lisboa Restaurante, 19 Lafayette Street in Waterbury.

Conversations

How does your humanism affect your life? What is your understanding of Humanism? Upon what is that based? What are the best books or articles that explain the ideas of humanism? Bring any relevant reading material to share. Join us at 2:30 p.m. on January 8 at 700 Hartford Turnpike. Refreshments will be provided.

The True Believer: Thoughts on the Nature of Mass Movements

Manny Ratafia has been kind enough to invite us to his home in Woodbridge on Saturday, January 15 at 3:30 p.m. to discuss the fascinating and enlightening classic, The True Believer: Thoughts on the Nature of Mass Movements by Eric Hoffer.

"One of the most provocative books of our immediate day." — Christian Science Monitor

"Its theme is political fanaticism, with which it deals severely and brilliantly...." — The New Yorker

From the back cover: "Eric Hoffer (1902 — 1983) was self-educated. He worked in restaurants, as a migrant fieldworker, and as a gold prospector. After Pearl Harbor, he worked as a longshoreman in San Francisco for twenty-five years. The author of more than ten books, including The Passionate State of Mind, The Ordeal of Change, and The Temper of Our Time, Eric Hoffer was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom in 1983.

"The True Believer — the first and most famous of his books — was made into a bestseller when President Eisenhower cited it during one of the earliest television press conferences. Completely relevant and essential for understanding the world today, The True Believer is a visionary, highly provocative look into the mind of the fanatic and a penetrating study of how an individual becomes one."

If you purchase from Amazon.com by following the link to the book at <http://www.cthumanist.org>, HAC will receive a small percentage of your purchase.

More information about Eric Hoffer and his work is available on the internet at <http://www.erichoffer.net>.

Social Action

As you know, June Schafer works extensively with the residents and especially the children at Waverly. This is the time of year when she is collecting donations to provide a small gift certificate to a store for each of the teenagers.

Your tax-deductible donation check can be made out to USNH and either given to June directly or mailed to her at 27 Thornton Street, Hamden, CT 06517-1321. If you would like to help in other ways, you can phone June at (203) 281-6232.
