The Rise of Secular Americans

Our featured speaker for August will be David Niose, President of the American Humanist Association. David will be talking about his new book, Nonbeliever Nation: The Rise of Secular Americans, on Sunday, August 19, at 3:00 p.m.

This talk will be in memory of Nat Wolf.

David says this talk will be “An overview of my book, Nonbeliever Nation, discussing several of the major themes, particularly the notion that an identity-oriented movement of Secular Americans stands the best chance of reversing the damage that has been done by three decades of Religious Right dominance.”

David Niose has served as president of the American Humanist Association since January 2009, following four years as treasurer of that organization. He also currently serves as vice president of the Secular Coalition for America. He blogs at Psychology Today, and has written extensively for many other publications. On a more local level, David is a founding member of Greater Worcester Humanists.

We will have copies of Nonbeliever Nation for sale at most events in August for $16.25.

We'll start with half an hour of coffee and conversation at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, August 19, at 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden, followed by David's talk after brief announcements at 3:30 p.m.

Bring a friend, and plan on having a great time!

Does it Bite?

Talk and slide show by Marsha Zellner preceded by potluck dinner.

Have you ever wondered what is real vs imagined of the stories of flesh-eating spiders or wolves and bears with a preference for human flesh? Marsha Zellner, M.D., will give an in-depth look (with illustrations) at the venomous snakes and insects in the continental US, and will discuss a variety of animal bites and the diseases associated with them. She will discuss identification, geographic location, those at risk, prevention, and urgent medical care for those unfortunate enough to be bitten.

Marsha is a full-time emergency medicine physician at St. Vincent's Hospital in Bridgeport, and is board certified in internal medicine. She is also a certified Wilderness First Aid Provider. Marsha has extensive experience as a hike leader and educator for Mosaic Outdoor Clubs of America.

The talk will be Saturday August 11 from 4:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. at 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden. We will start with a potluck dinner from 4:00 p.m. to 4:45 p.m. Marsha's presentation will follow with plenty of time for questions and answers.

Please bring a dish to share!
